How to report a missing person
Hard Words

This booklet has some hard words.

The first time we write hard words

- the words are in blue

- we will write what the hard words mean.

In this booklet we use pictures of police in

- uniforms

- suits.
About this booklet

This booklet is about how to report a missing person.

This means you tell the police about the missing person.

A missing person is when you have tried to find the person and you
● do not know where they are
● can not find them
● do not know if they are safe.

If a person is missing you can tell the police.

When you tell the police you will make a missing person report.
What to do

You do not need to wait to report a missing person.

You can report a missing person straight away.

Go to your local police station.

Go to page 9 for how to find your local police station.
How to make a missing person report

Go to a police station to make a missing person report.

Tell the police officer at the front counter I want to report a missing person

You might have to wait for the police to help you.

The Police will ask your

- name
- address
- phone number.

Police will ask you questions about the missing person.
Tell the police

- what the missing person looks like

- how the missing person communicates

- when the missing person was last heard from

- places the missing person goes

- where the missing person was last seen

- medication the missing person takes.

Medication means a tablet or liquid to help your body.
What to bring

- a recent photo of the missing person, if you have one

- contact details of family and friends that know the missing person.

  Contact details are
  - names
  - addresses
  - phone numbers.
When you talk to police you can have an interpreter.

An interpreter is a person that changes your message from one language to another.

For example
- Auslan to spoken English
- Vietnamese to English.

An interpreter can help you
- on the phone
- face to face.

An interpreter is free when you talk to police.

You can talk to someone who is the same gender as you. This means you
- are a man and you talk to a man
- are a woman and you talk to a woman.
Your local police station

To get information about your local police station you need to do 6 things.

1. Go to www.police.vic.gov.au

2. Look on the right side of the webpage

3. Click on Find Your Local Police Station

4. Type your postcode

5. Click go

6. Click on results.
If you know

- where a missing person is

or

- have any other information about a missing person

Call Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000

You do not have to give your name.
Other ways to contact the police

You can use the National Relay Service - NRS if you need to.

The NRS is for people who are Deaf, hard of hearing or have a speech difficulty.

Call 000 with TTY or Speak and Listen.

TTY users call 106
To ask for police type PPP
TTY users must register with the National Relay Service.

Speak and Listen users call 1800 555 727

Ask for Triple Zero

Internet Relay users call 000
This call is not a priority over other calls.
This means they will not know you have an emergency.
© Scope (Aust) Ltd. You may use this document for your own personal, non-commercial purposes only. You must not use the document for any other purpose, and must not copy, reproduce, digitise, communicate, adapt, modify the document or any part of it (or authorise any other person to do so) without the prior consent of Scope (Aust) Ltd.

Scope’s Communication and Inclusion Resource Centre wrote the Easy English. April 2017  www.scopeaust.org.au

To see the original contact Victoria Police

The Picture Communication Symbols ©1981–2010 by Mayer-Johnson LLC a Tobii Dynavox company. All Rights Reserved Worldwide. Used with permission. Boardmaker™ is a trademark of Mayer-Johnson LLC.

ClipArt © Inspired Services, UK. www.inspiredservices.org.uk

Change picture © 2011. www.changepeople.co.uk.